

Visual test of the M5 and the M10 fuel cartridges with a torch

In order to test whether or not the tubes are attached to the valve and to guarantee a perfect operation of the M5 and M10 fuel cartridges you can shine a torch through the cartridge. On the other side of the fuel cell you will then see the shadow of the tubes as shown below:

 Fuel cartridge not functional

 Fuel cartridge functional